Precision pipe and tube steel

Exported to Australia from the People's Republic of China, the Republic of Korea, Taiwan and the Socialist Republic of Vietnam

Investigation No. 550 into alleged dumping and subsidisation

Fifth extension of time granted to issue the Final Report

Customs Act 1901 – Part XVB

On 31 March 2020, the previous Commissioner of the Anti-Dumping Commission published a notice announcing the initiation of an investigation into the alleged dumping and subsidisation of precision pipe and tube steel (the goods) exported to Australia from the People's Republic of China, the Republic of Korea, Taiwan and the Socialist Republic of Vietnam.

A full description of the goods is set out in Anti-Dumping Notice (ADN) No. 2020/030 (the initiation notice) available on the Anti-Dumping Commission's (Commission) website at: www.adcommission.gov.au

The initiation notice advised that a recommendation to the Minister for Industry, Science and Technology (the Minister) would be made in a final report, on or before, 2 September 2020.

The time period for providing the final report and recommendation to the Minister was extended.¹ The current due date is 23 July 2021.

On 1 June 2021, Dr Bradley Armstrong PSM, the Commissioner for the Anti-Dumping Commission (the Commissioner), published a statement of essential facts (SEF)² in relation to this investigation.³ The legislated deadline for submissions (21 June 2021) to the SEF has expired.

The Commissioner has received 6 submissions to the SEF.⁴ In order to allow the Commission time to consider the submissions made in response the SEF, I, Paul Sexton, General Manager of the Investigations Branch of the Anti-Dumping Commission, requested a further extension of time to provide the final report and
