Definitive sample of Union producers

In accordance with the legislation in force ⁽¹⁾ ('the basic Regulation') on 15/09/2026 the European Commission initiated the above investigation.

After analysing the information provided by Union producers of the like product and given that no comments were received on the provisional sample of Union producers, under paragraph 5.4 of the Notice of initiation, the Commission informs interested parties of the definitive sample selection.

The Commission has selected two Union producers as the definitive sample. Under Article 17 of the basic Regulation, the criteria used for the selection of the sample were the representativity in terms of volume of production and sales of the like product in the EU between 1 July 2025 to 30 June 2026.

The definitive sample represents 45 % of the estimated total volume of production and sales of the like product in the Union, and it also ensures a good geographical spread.
